REWARD OF UNSELFISHNESS.—A writer in the Jewish Messenger relates the following anecdote illustrating the beauty of benevolence and its rewards

The Emperor Adrian was as cruel as he was powerful and his Jewish subjects were his especial abhorrence He let no opportunity pass to manifest his aversion for them One day he was traversing the streets of the royal city "on cruel thoughts intent," when his progress was arrested by a sight that somewhat surprised the tyrant An aged man bent with the weight of years, was planting some fruit by the wayside "Old man" said the tyrant, "why do you plant a tree whose fruits you may never live to partake of?" "Sire," said the patriarch, "I plant not for myself, if I should not be spared to see the goodly fruits of this tree, God will bless my children that they may partake thereof" The Emperor, pleased with the aged man's reply, forgot the vengeance he intended to wreak on the feeble old representative of the people he hated, and went on his way. Years rolled by, and a venerable man presented himself at the palace gate having with him a basket of fruit for the Emperor When admitted into the monarch's presence, and interrogated as to who he was, he said, "Sire, do you remember a poor old man whom you saw planting a tree by the roadside, and whom you rebuked for his fancied folly? I am that old man, and here is the fruit of the very tree" The Emperor was so pleased that he treated the patriarch with every mark of respect, and sent him home loaded with presents The result was, too, that he felt more kindly toward the Jewish race, in consequence of the remarkable faith and singularly benevolent conduct of the venerable man

SATURDAY MORNING FEB 21 1863

U S Internal Revenue

We publish below the recent decisions of Commissioner Boutwell relative to stamp duties upon legal instruments required by Act of Congress in the internal revenue law. By recent Act of Congress the time when these stamps shall be affixed to instruments of a public character to make them valid in law, upon this coast, has been delayed until the first day of March next. This was done because it was found to be impossible to print and send to the coast a sufficient number of these stamps to supply the country, and had the law not been so changed, a great hardship and much inconvenience if not injury, would have resulted to many of our citizens. There is now no doubt that a sufficient number of stamps can and will be sent out to supply all who may have occasion to use them before the time arrives requiring their use. The following copy of decisions, which serve as instructions, have been furnished us for publication by Mr. Thomas Frazar, U S Assessor, who informs us that the requirements therein contained, as also all other duties in regard to the assessing and collection of the U S revenue, will be strictly enforced in every particular. The first of these decisions, under date of October, 1862, is in regard to stamps upon instruments, and the second, under date of November, 1862, is concerning the affixing and cancelling of excise stamps on documents, &c. They sufficiently explain themselves.

Office of Internal Revenue,
October, 1862

DECISIONS IN REGARD TO STAMPS UPON INSTRUMENTS

In stamping promissory notes or other instruments requiring stamps, under the provisions of the Excise Law, two or more of a smaller denomination may be used in numbers sufficient to amount to the sum of the stamp required. Provided, that they are of the kind denominated for the kind of instrument to which the stamps are applied.

CERTIFICATES

A stamp will be required upon every certificate which has, or may have, a legal value in any court of law or equity.

Certificates, warrants, orders, and drafts, by one State officer upon another, for the purpose of carrying on the Internal business of the Government, are not subject to a stamp tax.

The same rule applies to the certificates, orders, &c, of county, city and town officers.

Messages transmitted by telegraph and railroad companies over their own wires, on their own business, for which they receive no pay, are not taxable.

DECISIONS REGARDING THE AFFIXING AND CANCELLING OF EXCISE STAMPS ON DOCUMENTS, ETC

Sec 95, provides "That if any person or "persons shall make, sign or issue or cause to "be made, signed or issued, any instrument, "document or paper, of any kind or description whatsoever, without the same being duly "stamped for denoting the duty imposed thereon, or without having thereupon an adhesive "stamp to denote said duty, such person or "persons shall incur a penalty of $50 and "such instrument, document or paper, shall "be deemed invalid and of no effect."

It seems to me perfectly clear, that by the provisions of Sec 95, the person who makes, signs and issues the instrument is the only person who is authorized to affix the stamp required by the law; and the person who makes, signs and issues, etc., without affixing the stamp, incurs the penalty as aforesaid and is liable to prosecution therefor, and the instrument or document is invalid in consequence of such neglect.

Sec 99, provides. "That the person using "or affixing the stamp, shall write thereupon "the initials of his name, date, &c."

Other portions of the law impose penalties upon persons who receive documents or articles subject to stamp duty from the person who makes, signs and issues them, without being duly stamped, etc.

I am therefore of the opinion that a faithful compliance with the requirements of the provisions of the excise law demands:

First That all papers subject to stamp tax, shall have the stamp affixed before the same is issued.

Second That the stamp so affixed must be cancelled in the manner prescribed by the party making, signing, or issuing (in other other words, executing,) the instrument, document, or paper.

Hence, the receiving of an unstamped paper is a violation of the law. The attaching and cancelling of a stamp on a document so received, is also unlawful, and the cancellation of a stamp on a paper (otherwise lawfully issued,) by other than the party executing the paper to which the stamp is affixed, is equally improper.

The only exception that exists in the law to the above ruling is in the case of a bill of exchange, or order for the payment of any sum of money drawn, or purporting to be drawn in any foreign country, but payable in the United States, in which case the acceptor or acceptors, shall, before paying or accepting the same, place thereupon a stamp indicating the duty upon the same, as provided by Sec 101, of the excise law.

GEORGE S BOUTWELL,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

Woolen Factory at Forest Grove.—The people of Forest Grove and neighborhood are striving in the matter of building a Woolen Factory at that place. A meeting has been held, and steps taken towards surveying the water privilege. They expect to obtain a fall of fifteen feet by digging a race three-quarters of a mile in length. The citizens are in earnest about it, and intend to push it through.

The silver and gold lands of the United States on the Pacific coast are greater in extent than England, Scotland and Ireland together.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

New York, Feb [illegible]—The Herald has the following: [illegible] date.—[illegible] has been issued the [illegible] the reserve of the grand [illegible] and returning to Gen. Sigel's command the 11th corps. The work of reorganizing the army is progressing.

The Times' Washington dispatch states that Gen Hamilton is said to have received an assurance from Government that there is an expedition shortly to be [illegible] which has for its object the reclamation of [illegible] the Union. The chief command will probably be given to Gen Butler, Gen Hamilton having a subordinate command.

Jackson, Feb 4.—The rebel ram Queen of the West which passed Vicksburg on Monday morning arrived at the landing at Vidalia opposite Natchez on the same evening. A guard of men was sent on shore which attempted to capture Col. Zeebulon York, but he escaped. The ram then steamed down the river doing considerable damage.

The following are additional particulars of the battle off Charleston.

It appears from a statement of an eye witness that the cause of the attack of the rebel rams on our squadron was owing to the capture of the Princess Royal.

The captain and pilot of that vessel having escaped during the darkness of the night communicated the intelligence to the rebels. The Princess Royal endeavored to run the blockade by way of Beach Inlet and was discovered by the pilot boat Blunt. A signal brought to the Unadilla, she gave chase and captured her. The captain and pilot succeeded in getting ashore carrying important dispatches to the rebel Government. At daylight the thunder of guns was heard, supposed to be the outer fleet engaged in making an attack on the Alabama or Florida endeavoring to make an entrance. At daybreak the rebel iron clads were seen coming down from the direction of Stone Inlet towards the fleet. They attacked the Mercedita first, an account of which has already been given.

The ram then steered towards the Keystone State and sent a shot through her steam drum, causing the death of 21 persons and wounding 5 more. In the meantime the gunboat Housatonic engaged the other ram driving her away. At half past 6 in the morning both rams left the scene and passed up to Charleston. During the attack on our fleet the Princess Royal succeeded in escaping and arriving here. They were successful chiefly owing to the assistance of the 3d Engineer of the Thurston. The Mercedita steamed down to Port Royal with only one of her boilers injured, at which place she arrived safely and will be repaired in a day. The Keystone State was disabled but was towed to Port Royal by the Memphis. The rebel statement that the Federal fleet had entirely disappeared from Charleston is unauthorized by facts. Our vessels returned to their positions at dark. The new Ironsides arrived the next day to reinforce the blockaders. Information is also brought by the Princess Royal of the attack of the iron clad Montauk on Fort McAllister on the 29th ult. She was not disabled in the least although receiving 17 shots in her sides, 12 on her turret and was engaged 5 hours. She returned to her anchorage for want of shells and the next morning being foggy she did not return to the attack. The Princess Royal has on board besides a large amount of arms and ammunition the complete machinery for the construction of one iron clad, also as a passenger, an English mechanic who is well versed in the process of making and hardening projectiles.

Army Register.—We compile the following facts and figures from the official report of the Register of the Army of the United States for August, 1862, published in compliance with the resolution of the Senate of April 23d, 1862.

Of Major Generals, George B McClellan's name stands first upon the list, having received his appointment as such on the 14th of May, 1861. Gen McClellan is a graduate of the U S Military Academy and first entered the service in July, 1846, as brevet 2d Lieutenant of Engineer corps, born in Pennsylvania and appointed from Ohio.

John C Fremont is reported second in command at that time (August, 1862) received his commission as Major General May 14th, 1861—same date as McClellan's commission, brevetted 2d Lieutenant of Topographical Engineers, July 7th, 1838, born in South Carolina, and appointed Major General from California, is not a graduate of any U S Military Academy.

Henry W. Halleck, commissioned Major General, August 19th 1861, commanding the Army, first entered the service in July 1839, as 2d Lieutenant Engineer Corps, born in New York, and appointed from California, is a graduate of the Military Academy.

Major General John F Wool first entered the service as a Captain of the 13th Infantry, April 14th 1812, breveted Brigadier General, February 23d 1847 and commissioned Major General, May 16th, 1862, born in New York and appointed from New York, is reported not a graduate of any Military Academy.

Of Brigadier Generals, William S Harney holds the oldest commission, which dates from June 14th, 1858, entered the service February 13th, 1818, born in Louisiana and appointed from the same State, is reported not a graduate.

William S Rosekrans commissioned Brigadier General, May 16th, 1861, entered the service July 1st, 1842, born in Ohio and appointed from the same State, is a graduate.

John Pope commissioned Major General of Volunteers, March 21st 1862, and on the 14th of July following was relieved of his command on the Potomac and appointed Brigadier General, entered the service as brevet 2d Lieutenant Topographical Engineers, July 1st 1842, born in Kentucky and appointed from Illinois, is a graduate.

There are 42 Major Generals reported in this list, all of whom are native born except one Franz Sigel who is a German by birth and appointed from Missouri. There are 165 Brigadier General reported, of whom ten are of foreign birth.

The report is very lengthy, containing a list of all the principal field and staff officers, Commissaries, Paymasters, &c &c, who were in the service at the date of making the report. There are, without doubt many errors and omissions which could not be avoided, and many changes have taken place since its publication. We shall probably continue our extracts from this report at another time.

White's Fever and Ague Drops.—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague, especially and it is having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of certificates could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—65 cents.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following is an account of the proceedings in the Circuit Court yesterday—Judge Shattuck presiding

State of Oregon vs Jose Maria Hernandez. Verdict—guilty of manslaughter

B. P Smith vs Allen & Lewis. Verdict for plff in the sum of $600 Motion to set aside verdict and for a new trial.

E. Kurb vs G Mitchell. Trial progressing.

COMPLAINTS.—We have received a note from a subscriber at Vancouver, complaining of the irregular reception of the OREGONIAN at that place for several days past. The only explanation we can give is that parties to whom we have intrusted the packages of papers for that place occasionally forgets or neglects to deliver them We have used at all times our best endeavors to supply our patrons with the paper regularly, but occasionally a failure to receive them will occur in spite of all we can do. Patrons at a distance must expect to be disappointed in the reception of their papers once in a while, in which no one particular person is to blame. We presume there is not an instance on record in which some newspaper has not failed to reach its destination at the proper time.

LECTURE.—The lecture of Rev. T. H Pearne at the Academy last evening was well attended, and, as may be supposed, everybody was highly interested and pleased with the historical and logical facts presented There is no question that Mr Pearne is a fine orator, an instructive lecturer and an able man.

MUD, MUD, MUD.—All is mud, slop and filth from one end of our streets to the other, and the gentle mists which continue to fall without any abatement are imminently calculated to make a little more mud. The fact has long since been demonstrated clearer than mud, that our city authorities are and have been considerably muddled.

PROPAGATION OF THE SPECIES.—The great American Prince of Humbugs, Barnum, has got up a new scheme which is likely to create a little sensation in the gossipping circles of fashionable life. It consists in nothing less than a projected marriage between General Thomas Thumb and Miss Lavinia Warren, the lady dwarf now on exhibition at the Museum. Tom, it is said, fell in love with the lady "on sight," and thereupon straightway went into a fit of melancholy, which greatly alarmed his friends, who were unauspicious of the cause, until, having made a confidant of the great Phineas himself, General Thumb revealed the trouble that was pressing down his spirit, that but recently was so jubilant. Barnum, with an eye to future business, doubtless, sympathized at once with his little friend in so sorrowful a plight, and, bidding him to keep up a good heart, promised to be friend him in the affair to the utmost of his power. This promise was for poor, lovelorn Tom an equivalent for success; for Barnum, you know, never fails in anything he undertakes, save manufacturing Connecticut clocks. The result of his management, therefore, is, according to the newspapers, the settlement of the preliminaries of a marriage between two of the smallest specimens of adult humanity that perhaps were ever seen. The nuptials are not to take place for some time, as Barnum thinks it would be cruel to deprive the little couple of the chance of a full indulgence in those roseate dreams which are so plentiful in the days of courtship, but so apt to disappear utterly when one wakes up into the dull-[illegible] of wedded life. In the mean time, the affair gives rise to much gossip in "domestic circles," scarcely less than we hear of from Europe over the marriage of some prince or princess—and among the ladies, especially, as you may well believe, there is no little amount of surmise and wondering as to the probable results of the marriage, should it eventually take place. Perhaps Barnum's thoughts also run in this direction

NOMINATION OF CONNESS.—The dispatch to the Marysville Appeal says the nomination of Conness as the candidate of the Union party for United States Senator was made unanimous without a single dissenting voice. Hathaway and Perkins, of San Francisco, voted for him. The latter endorsed his loyalty and anti-slavery sentiments heartily He would have been nominated any hour to-night, as the Sargent men had resolved to withdraw Sargent, should he not be chosen on the fifth ballot, when most of them would have gone for Mr Conness. The vote stood—Conness, 60; Sargent, 30; Brown, 6, Phelps, 2, Park 1 The election in Joint Convention will probably come off on the 11th inst.

A YOUNG HERO.—Colonel J. B Forman, of Louisville, Kentucky, killed at the battle of Murfreesboro, was the youngest Colonel in the army, being only twenty years of age—He was killed while gallantly leading his men into action.

Bill for the Peace Commissioners.—The New York correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin in speaking of the recent rumors relative to certain parties proposing to negotiate a treaty of peace with the rebels, which shall bind the action of the Federal Government, says

The efforts of the "peace party" to embarrass the National Government by taking upon themselves the province of negotiating a peace or compromise with the rebels, are likely to come to an untimely end. At present there is no law under which they can be reached, the only statute extant on the subject having reference only to self constituted "Peace Commissioners" who may assume to act at such times as our country may be at war with foreign powers. To remedy this defect, Mr. Sumner has introduced in the Senate a bill which exactly meets the case of the secession sympathizers of the Wood and Vallandigham stamp. This bill, which is simply an embodiment of the old law, with the necessary additions and amendments, provides that, if any person, being a resident of the United States, or being a citizen thereof and residing in any foreign country, shall unauthorizedly hold any sort of correspondence with the rebel government, or with any of its agents or sympathizers, with the intent to defeat the measures of the United States, or to weaken in any way their efficiency, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10,000 and by imprisonment not less than six months nor exceeding five years. When this bill shall have been passed into a law, as it undoubtedly will be, the vocation of the Vallandighams and Woods, as well as of such fussy small fry as William Cornell Jewett and George Francis Train will be effectually squelched.

But the bill is intended to reach farther than this. You will perceive that it is made to apply to "any person" who is a resident of the United States, including foreigners, of course. Although ostensibly aimed at self constituted peace commissioners, the bill is so broadly drawn that its provisions apply to "all persons who hold, directly or indirectly, any correspondence or intercourse, written or verbal, with any officer, agent or sympathizer with the rebel government, with the intent aforesaid." That is, "with the intent to defeat the measures of the Government, or to weaken in any way their efficiency." Here, then, is food for grave reflection to those foreign gentlemen, whether residents or only sojourners in the country, who are just now so busily engaged with rebel agents and sympathizers in efforts intended to thwart the measures of the Government, or at least to "weaken their efficiency." The giving any sort of aid or comfort to rebels must necessarily have such a tendency, and will, of course, bring the aiders and comforters themselves within the purview of Mr. Sumner's bill.

French Consul at New Orleans.—It seems that Count Mejan, French Consul at New Orleans has been intermeddling in the financial affairs of the United States authorities, which very properly caused his sudden recall by his Government upon the facts being made known to his superiors. A correspondent of the Bulletin says upon this subject

One of these foreign intermeddlers in our domestic troubles and defiers of the laws of the country, Count Mejan, French Consul at New Orleans, has according to Washington dispatches, just received at the hands of his own Government a dismissal from the position whose immunities he has so foully abused in the interests of the rebels. It seems that Gen Butler, immediately on his arrival in Washington, brought to the notice of the Government for the second time the case of his seizure of rebel funds in the hands of the Consul, which funds the General, in accordance with the decision of Reverdy Johnson, was compelled to return to the claimants.

Butler's exposition of the affair threw a flood of new light upon it, and so well satisfied Mr. Seward of the criminality of the Consul's proceedings that he immediately sent the record to M. Mercier, the French Minister. The result of the latter's examination into the matter was the prompt dismissal of the little dabbler in rebel financial trickery, as stated above. The Count will doubtless feel bad enough under his disgrace, but he can hardly feel worse than Reverdy Johnson will, in view of this prompt repudiation by his own Government of his prejudiced report, and the equally prompt endorsement of that repudiation by the representative of France.

Accident to Horace Greeley.—The philosopher was in Albany at the opening of the Legislature on what business is best known by himself. As usual, he overworked himself, and sitting to read a newspaper in the pleasant parlors of the Delavan, he fell asleep. He was seen by Captain Rynders, and that wag summoned a bootblack and set him at work on Horace's boots; the boy went at it with a will, and had polished one boot before the distinguished journalist awoke. A polished boot was too much for the old Roman, he essayed escape; but the boy held him fast, and he was forced to submit, amid the hearty roars of his Democratic friends who had gathered to witness the sport. Suffice it that when the boy had completed his work, Horace immediately fled in search of a mud hole, and when last seen no one would have dreamed that by any accident his cowhides had ever been corrupted by lampblack and oil.

A shoemaker once disappointed Dean Swift by not bringing a pair of shoes at the appointed time, and excused himself by saying he had forgotten to do so. The Dean appeared satisfied, asked him into his garden, and after a few turns, left him on some pretense, locked the garden door and put the key in his pocket. The shoemaker soon began to get very cold and impatient. No attention, however, was paid him until nightfall, when he began to roar most lustily. The Dean, armed with a blunderbuss, and accompanied by his servants, rushed out to the garden and inquired

"Who's there?" in a voice of thunder

The shoemaker replied that it was he

"Good God! Mr ———," said the Dean, "how long have you been there?"

"Six hours," rejoined the shoemaker

"My dear sir," said the Dean, "I beg your pardon, but I quite forgot you—as you forgot my shoes."

A Philosopher.—James Ferguson and his wife led a cat and dog life, and she is not once alluded to in the philosopher's autobiography. About the year 1750, one evening, while he was delivering to a London audience a lecture on astronomy, his wife entered the room in a passion, and maliciously overturned several pieces of the apparatus, when all the notice Ferguson took of the matter was the observation to the audience "Ladies and gentlemen, I have the misfortune to be married to this woman."

Severe.—An Eastern editor, speaking of a thief who had stolen some turkeys from a poor old lame man, thus indignantly calls down an awful retribution upon the villain "He ought to have his gizzard (soul he has none) scratched out with mosquito bills, and his worthless body devoured by the ghosts of stolen turkeys."

Proclamation by the Governor

Executive Office, Portland Oregon,
January 6 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government.

Propositions to raise a whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained. The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places. By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS

Cyrus A Reed, Adjutant General
